11 AM ~ TRADITIONAL WORSHIP

Preparing for Worship

The prelude marks the beginning of worship and is observed in silence.
Prelude Siciliano J. S. Bach

Called by God, We Gather

One: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

All: And also with you.

One: Give praise and thanksgiving to God, for he made all things, he alone stretched out the heavens.

All: He formed us in the womb and called us to be his servants before we were born.

One: Rejoice and be glad, for God remembers his purpose and does not forget his people.

All: We come to worship him with glad hearts!

Song of Worship: To God Be the Glory 66

Confession and Pardon

One: The psalmist reminds us, “The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love. He will not always accuse, nor will he keep his anger forever.” With this knowledge, we may confess our sins before God and one another with confidence.

All: Merciful God, we go about our days failing to proclaim your saving power with our voices or with our actions. We do not always live as ones saved, but rather as people filled with fear and doubt. We close our eyes and ears to those who are in need, and close our hearts to those we claim to love. We are quick to hurt others, and slow to right our wrongs. Forgive us, O God, for all the ways we have not lived into our relationship with you.
Amen.

One: Friends, “God does not deal with us according to our sins, nor repay us according to our iniquities. For as the heavens are high above the earth, so great is his steadfast love toward those who fear him; as far as the east is from the west, so far he removes our transgressions from us.” In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

All: Amen!

Praise God from whom all blessings flow; praise him all creatures here below; praise him above ye heavenly host; praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

*Our father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on Earth as it is in heaven. Give us
